The first campaign arc unfolds within the world of Ravenloft, plunging viewers into a dark and atmospheric setting filled with mystery, suspense, and gothic horror. This campaign arc ties into the newly announced Ravenloft: The Horrors Within releasing June 16 and features unreleased content from the upcoming book. The viewer experience of Dungeon Masters is accentuated by an all-original score from five-time, Grammy-nominated composer David Arkenstone, whose work has encompassed television, games, and more.

"Dungeon Masters brings a truly authentic and original experience to our fans, with all of the fun, high-tension moments, drama and adventure built from official D&D material," said Dan Ayoub, SVP and Head of Dungeons & Dragons at Wizards of the Coast. "In many ways, Dungeon Masters is our love letter to the actual play shows that have introduced so many to D&D. Our aim with Dungeon Masters is to crystallize all that's great about actual play – the tension, drama, and unpredictable nature – and put our stamp on it with upcoming official source material. We're so excited to see how Dungeon Masters can inspire even more adventure from our players, and in turn, see how they inspire us to make the show better and better."

Dungeon Masters represents a bold new chapter in Dungeons & Dragons entertainment, bringing together beloved performers and rich worldbuilding to create an unforgettable viewing experience for fans worldwide.

Watch Dungeon Masters starting Wednesday, April 22 at 6:30pm PT on YouTube.
